Exploring Norway's breathtaking fjords in five nights makes for the perfect taster of cruising with Fred. Olsen. The dramatic Lysefjord and pretty Hardangerfjord are complemented by enchanting destinations. Capture Bergen from atop Mount Fløyen; journey on the Flåm Railway; visit Norway's largest national park; and more.

With Newcastle's convenient proximity to Norway, you can quickly and comfortably reach some of the country's most celebrated scenes of natural beauty. Your short escape aboard Balmoral begins with a diversion along the steep Lysefjord, which is a feat only possible for smaller ships.

A full day in historic Bergen follows. There's a host of highlights, including the UNESCO-listed Bryggen Wharf, the vibrant fish market and the Troidhaugen Museum – once the former home of acclaimed composer Edvard Grieg. For a faster pace, the sensational Flåm Railway is available on tours, while unparalleled views of Bergen await those who take the funicular railway to the top of Mount Fløyen.

The highlights don't stop there. From charming Eidfjord you can kayak on the still surrounding waters, take a tour to the invigorating Hardangervidda Nature Centre, sample authentic local treats at the Hardanger Juice and Cider Factory, or visit the spectacular Vøringsfoss Waterfall. To round off your day, there'll be time for more scenic cruising, taking in Hardangerfjord, 'Queen of the Fjords' and the awe-inspiring Fureberg Waterfall – following a diversion down the Maurangerfjord.
